

Hi, to everyone,

I want to use this opportunity to extend my sincere gratitude to the istep up foundation for their tremendous help offered me so far. I have finished my second semester exams today and hopefully will be promoted to second year comes, October.

I will not have reached to this point without your support, once more I say thank you to you all for your contribution towards my education.

Attached are some of my photos.

Thanks.

Amara