

Update

20-03-2023

First of all i most say thanks and appreciation to this foundation for the value that you have added to my life, May God continue to provide you.this semester will be a longer one . since we have recess after my first term exam s,we are in class for 3 months taking lectures on pediatric nursing, surgical nursing, othopedise,eye ,nose, throat nursing, public health nursing, statistics, medical nursing,foundamental nursing and after results were published out ,we were posted for another practical on special unit to different hospitals,and there we are now.my results was good and i have promoted to year two now and we have asked the school to give us the results so that we can send it to you but we were asked to pay in the school account before they prepared it and it's entails a lot of procedure ,so we are waiting for them.

Fatima Fornah