

ACTIVITIES UPDATE

Throughout the course of last year, my academic journey went smoothly as I was able to overcome every challenge that came my way. Hoping that this year will be better than last. Here is a quick summary of my academic activities.

School resumed January 16th, 2023.

Attempted 6 courses, passed all 6 courses.

Assigned to Edward Francis Small Teaching Hospital for clinicals (2 days a week).

Lectures at AIUWA 4 days a week.

Extracurricular activities

In June of 2022, I was awarded best student nurse at the Serre-Kunda Health Center.

I also participated in the AIUWA student elections which was held in May 2023, where I was the secretary general to the electoral body.

Participated in the AIUWA 2023 graduation ceremony as part of the Ushers team.

Went to a community outreach program at a village about 100 kilometers from my town.

Below you will find pictures of me at the various events I took part in.
