My update:

I am writing to express my sincere gratitude for the incredible support you have provided throughout my entire academic journey during the past academic year. Your generosity and belief in my potential have been instrumental in helping me navigate the challenges and opportunities that come with pursuing a career as a nurse midwife.

Over the past academic year, (April 2025 to 30th March 2026) I have faced both academic and personal hurdles. However, with your unwavering support, I was able to overcome these obstacles and excel in my studies. Your financial assistance has eased the burden of education costs, allowing me to focus more on my academic pursuits and clinical experiences. I am proud to share that I have achieved notable academic success, earning top grades and recognized as one of the best students in our class, that reflect my dedication and hard work.

In addition to my academic achievements, the clinical allocation provided me with invaluable hands-on experience in a real-world healthcare setting. The opportunity to work directly with patients and healthcare professionals has deepened my understanding of my career. My first clinical allocation I focused on mental health, medical surgical (burns, ophthalmology, dermatology and ICU department. Now am finalizing my second allocation which will end on 19th March 2026 and it was about pediatric nursing and Nursing management. I have really enjoyed the clinical allocation and I was very happy seeing myself in the matrons office, being among heads of department as a manager. I will write my end of semester 6 examination from 30th March to 3rd April and am expecting the results to be out in 2 weeks after exams. The same April I will start my last year of my academic journey (7th and 8th semester) and this journey will end on 30th March 2027.

Once again, thank you for your unwavering support and belief in me. I am truly grateful for everything you have done for me. And I promise you to work extra hard in order to graduate with good grades.

Thank you.
